

DurhamEnable Introduction Transcript

[Audio: Upbeat music plays throughout the clip.]

[Video: An animation of five people with disabilities sitting on and around a park bench.]

[Female Narrator] Do you feel like your disability, mental health or physical health is making it hard to find work?

[Video: An animation of a young male walking toward the front of a building. There are signs on the building for Durham County Council and DurhamEnable.]

[Female Narrator] Well, if you're over 18 and live in County Durham, DurhamEnable is here to help and support you.

[Video: An animation of two males shaking hands in front of a sign saying DurhamEnable. One of the males is behind a desk.]

[Female Narrator] We will guide you along the route of finding a job through to staying in a job and we can even help you out with getting to and from work with our travel training!

[Video: An animation of a young male sitting on a bus.]

[Female Narrator] Even if you've never worked before, at DurhamEnable we can help you work out what type of job would suit you best and build your confidence. We can also support you with volunteering, work experience, or work trials and that can eventually turn into paid work.

[Video: An animation of a male walking through a building site holding planks of wood. A male and a female sitting behind a computer monitor. A female standing beside hutches with animals in, while a boy, with an older woman, points at a dog holding a bone.]

[Female Narrator] At DurhamEnable, we take the time to match you up with jobs and employers that are right for you, and we don't just help you find a job and then leave you to get on with it, we'll keep supporting you and your employer so you can thrive in your new career!

[Video: An animation of a woman sitting behind a desk looking at a sheet of a paper. There is another woman sitting on the other side of the desk smiling. A female watering plants in a greenhouse.]

[Female Narrator] We also support employers to be inclusive and make adjustments to their workplace so employees and businesses can grow together.

[Video: An animation of two workmen installing an accessible ramp.]

[Female Narrator] We believe that with the right job and the right support at the right time, everyone who wants to work can work.

[Video: An animation of a man sitting at a desk operating a computer. A male walking through a building site holding planks of wood. A female standing beside hutches with animals in.]

[Female Narrator] To find out how you can start your journey to work, visit us at www.durhamenable.info or, call us for a chat on 03000 269 899.

[Text: Visit www.durhamenable.info to find out more. Email: durhamenable@durham.gov.uk Phone 03000-269-899.]

[Female Narrator] DurhamEnable – A brighter future for inclusive employment.

[Image: DurhamEnable logo, Base logo, Disability Confident logo.]